

Maloletau Ah Sam

June 18, 1961 - May 2, 2025

Maloletau Luni “June” Ah Sam, 63, passed away on May 2, 2025, in Bluffdale, UT. He was born on June 18, 1961 in Vaiusu, Samoa to Sua Ah Sam and Fesilafai Sila. He never married but he adored his nieces and nephew as his children.

Luni, graduated high school from Maluafou College. He attended ASCC, American Samoa Community College and although he didn't graduate, it lead him to start a career at StarKist Company. From there, his journey led him to the United States of America. He arrived to Los Angeles on July 17, 1987 with nothing but himself and the clothes his back. His sister, Nise, picked him up and helped him get a job at Fabulous Burgers. There, he was a chef and enjoyed working with his family members. In November 1998, he found out that his sister and her family was moving to Utah and he decided that he wanted to move with them. Starting a new chapter in Utah led him to work at 7-Eleven in South Salt Lake and it was his only job until he left his mortal journey. He worked there for 27 years and fed his nieces and nephews with many delicious slurpees, taquitos, candy, and hot chocolates to name a few.

was a member of the EFKS, Protestant church. When we moved to LA, he became a Christian and joined the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. He had many pastimes. To name a few, he enjoyed being outdoors, shooting his BB gun, and he was a great fisherman. He also loved to bowl, play billiards, and watch WWE. The Miami dolphins was his favorite NFL team of all time!

He was survived by his siblings: Taamilosaga, Alataua, Faranise, Siauni, and Legatasia Tupu. As well as his nieces and nephews that he loved so much: Delbert, Daisy, Daniel, Danise, Venessa, Aaron, Geraldine, and Nixon AJ.
