

Marce Croft

August 24, 1942 - April 21, 2016

Marce Croft

A Valiant, hardworking, and kind soul, Marce Val Croft was called home to our loving Heavenly Father on April 21, 2016. Marce V Croft, 73, died at home of a sudden heart attack.

He was born on August 24th 1942 in Provo, UT, to Herbert Joel and Geraldine (White) Croft.

He grew up in the Orem- Provo area where he helped on his family dairy farm and later on his parent's mink farm. He graduated from Provo High School and promptly after graduation entered the U.S. Army Reserves where he served 8 years.

He married Nancy Ann Wagstaff of Highland, UT in the Salt lake Temple on October 1st, 1964. While in the Reserves he worked for Quality Linen and later hired on and retired from Consolidated Freightways.

Marce enjoyed camping, riding his four- wheeler, reading, and exploring America. He enjoyed reading church history, action novels, and would often read during down times out camping. He particularly liked camping up in the Uinta and La Sal Mountains, and Red Fish Lake. Marce and Nancy took a cross country trip to New York and visited Niagara Falls on their 48th wedding anniversary, and loved visiting Branson, MO. They recently celebrated their 50th anniversary by going on a cruise to Alaska, which was one of his dreams.

He had a strong testimony of Jesus Christ and recently enjoyed working in the Draper Temple. He was ordained a High Priest and served in the Quorum of the Seventy. He took great delight in serving his family and friends. He was the rock we all depended on.

He was preceded in death by his parents; Herbert Joel and Geraldine (White) Croft, and youngest sister Ellen Tolman.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Nancy Ann Wagstaff Croft, 5 children and 14 grandchildren: (Marianne) and Chris Herndon, (Bonnie) and Robert Cannon, (Matthew) and Kelly Croft, (Andrea) and Kelly Leatherbury, (Jennilyn) and Joshua Nypower. Grandchildren: Alex, Nichole, and Melanie Jensen, Shayla and Savanna Herndon; Casey and Jordan Cannon; Kolbe Croft; Sierra, Dillon, and Lindsey VanOrman, James Leatherbury; Jesse Hancock, Justin Nypower. Sisters: Sandra VanVliet, and Irene Larson.

“ Nancy and family; I am so sorry for your loss and for all our loss. Marce was a dear , kind, wonderful man. He brightened any space he was in. His goodness and righteous shone through. I loved working with both of you at the Draper Temple. Marce always had the kindest remarks that lifted spirits. Needless to say Marce passing came as a shock. We never know when our earthly mission is over. Marce fought the good fight and won. I am grateful that both Marce and Nancy Croft have crossed my path in life. Know my thoughts and prayers are with you during this grieving time.

“ I loved seeing his smiling face every week at the temple. You could tell that serving at the baptistry brought him a lot of joy. You could also tell he adored his beautiful wife Nancy. He will be greatly missed. We love you dearly Nancy and are so sorry for your loss!
