

Marty Lynn Rockwell

July 13, 1964 - December 8, 2015

Into peace and out of pain. Marty was a good man with a big heart, (though he tried to hide it). He always liked to make people laugh. He loved his children fiercely and spoke about them with pride, and he adored his dogs Maggie and Jackson. Marty will be sadly missed by his beloved children Paige and Parker Rockwell, their mother Sonie Groves Rockwell, his girlfriend Jody Askee, and his siblings Vicky Rockwell Harris (Roy), Karen Rockwell (Sandy), Rudy Rockwell, Dwayne Rockwell (Karen), Chris Stone (Lucy), Toni Farris, Geoffrey Rockwell (Jennifer), and Bambi Farris. Marty is predeceased by his Father Rudy Rockwell and his mother Norah Farris, and survived by his step-mother JoAnna Rockwell and step-father Tony Farris, several aunts and uncles and cousins, and many nieces and nephews.

A funeral service will be held on Sunday, December 13, 2015 at the Serenity Funeral Home, 12278 S Lone Peak Parkway, #103, Draper, Utah at 2pm.

1-801-255-2801.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in trust for Paige and Parker at <http://www.gofundme.com/paigeparkertrust>

“ I have not spoken to Marty since a few years out of high school but remember so many great times driving around on Sunday afternoon looking for a pick up game of football. Wish we had stayed in contact. God Bless to all his loved ones

“ I met Marty in May 1989 when we both worked for Life Design Systems in Carrollton Tx. Being new to the area I was looking for friends and Marty became a good friend who included me when he went waterskiing or running in the neighborhoods in The Colony. Marty was fun to be with and always had something funny to say to make us all laugh. He was full of life and loved to run. Marty had tremendous ambition and a brilliant mind to think of ways to make the production easier in the plant. I lost touch with Marty in the 90s but always knew he would be successful. Rest In Peace brother. You will always be remembered in our hearts forever.

“ ..terrible to find this news. My thoughts immediately returned to 1997 where I met what appeared to be a big kid, in over his head, with the task of bringing the Ballard Pocatello plant online. Those days still have a strong pull and I often reflect on them, for me, and I believe Marty, those early days in Pocatello were pretty heady and perhaps some of Marty's and other's demons were born of them...Al, Paul and now Marty... Still Marty had a way of accepting your weaknesses and complimenting your strengths and just making you feel comfortable and at ease whether through making light of his own misgivings or interjecting humor into a difficult situation, of which there were quite a few, some of them still make me chuckle. Marty was just a warm sincere person...I hate so much to here this news.

“ Marty love

you are love of this I am sure so pure so magnificent heaven sent you to light our worlds to right our minds to help us hurl the faults we find in each of us to help us trust in the love that you are to heal the scars created by forgetting setting us up baiting us into grieving into believing that you are gone but we are wrong because a miracle is a shift in perception perfection is you but you recall rejection perceiving disdain pain became you shame detained you became the glue that subdued you left you stewing led to your undoing bare winter trees whose leaves have fallen are not appalled do not seek reason they understand the seasons and don't feel shunned by the sun's shorter stays the rays still reach them no breach is caused because pain never was and rain may fall but all it does is cleanse the streets and wash our feet and prime the soil by design it toils underground surrounds tender shoots with resolute love rendering buds which blossom with awesome sweetness completes the cycle a miracle which repeats over and again within each of us so trust the refrain and hush no more pain for we are meeting you in love greeting you the dove of the peace we find when we release when we are kind when we reach to connect to stretch our necks to leave our wretchedness in the past to be the blast of love the you are and that by far you always have been if only you had seen you dreamed such lonely dreams but things aren't what they seemed

i know you see it now that you are love and that somehow we are love too and we are here with you Marty love

“ The first time I met Marty was the first time I met the whole Rockwell family - Paige and Parker were probably 5 and 3 years old. He seemed to know he had a beautiful life - a big smile and very proud and happy. Today's memorial service was sad and amazing at the same time. Sad to see someone who once had life by the tail go too soon, leaving the people he loved so much, and amazing to see standing room only, with people spilling out on to the sidewalk wanting to say their goodbyes. It was a beautiful tribute to someone who touched so many. RIP Marty. ”

“ To my friend Marty,

You were my leader at Ballard for many years and more importantly my good friend. I remember so many fun times golfing, playing cards, and hanging out together with friends, We had a great thing going at Ballard and delivered results. Our relationship drifted away when I moved back to Georgia, but we talked from time to time and that meant so much to me...as your friend.

I miss you Marty and you will always be in my thoughts as you were a special person in my life. You had the "IT" that so many talk but have never achieved.

To Paige and Parker, let me re-emphasize what you already know in your heart...Your Dad loved you with all his heart and was the most proud Dad I've ever known. Every time we talked, he spoke about you and what you were doing. I'm a family-first kind of person, so I completely appreciated the love he has for you.

“ Working with Marty for over 10 years we got to be pretty good friends. I was saddened to hear the news and my first thoughts were of Jody and his two kids. I hope that his entire family can find some peace at this time. He was a caring, funny man full of life. And I am proud to say that we were friends.

RIP Marty too soon for sure

“ I remember Marty so very well, he married my very best friend from high school (Sonie) /I watched them fall in love, right before my eyes, Sonie and Marty connected instantly for life..they had two beautiful children Paige and Parker. Marty was just as every one shared.....funny, loving, engaging and always a friend. Marty always made everyone feel welcome. My memories off Sonie and Marty at a very young age will forever be remembered in a special way.....wishing Sonie, Paige and Parker the very best as they continue to journey through life....every moment is precious, do not waste it....do not fear, embrace every moment...xxx ooo Lisa Jennings Greco
