“ Condolences Margaret and your family at the loss of Milt. A great man! He was a fine friend and counselor to me (Mark Flandro) (1981-1985) when I was Bishop in the Holladay 20th Ward along with Gary Stenquist. My wife Donette and I will freely admit that I was a wet-behind-the-ears bishop in those days [being ordained a high priest and a bishop that day in February]. [I was the Cub Master and did not even know who was RS President was at that time of ordination] Milt was a counselor who gave his full support and council with great thought and wisdom and we will always be thankful for his friendship, support and guidance at that time and throughout those years and before and since. An outstanding man of God! May the Lord bless you Margaret as you continue forward. We love you! Mark and Donette and family.

Thank you so much for your, thoughtful words. I'm Milt's daughter-in-law, Kathy. He was a wonderful Man, truly a kind caring. He counceled my Husband (Shawn) and I, always with a kind heart, and with our Heavenly Father's, guidance. Thank you, from Shawn and I, our Children, and Grandchildren. We will miss Milt, until we get to see him again. Again thank you, to You and Your Wife.

“ Milt Davis is my First Cousin, as his mother, Enone Lyman Davis Hardman, is a sister to my father, Karl Robison Lyman. Milt is three years older than me, however, from our childhood days we had many occasions to interface and he always treated me as equal despite the fact that he was certainly wiser and much more mature about life even in our youth. I revere Milt for his unique character of goodness and caring exhibited countless times over the years to me and others of our very large family. He directed our family organization for a number of years and was very solicitous of the well being and inclusion of every member. I send my sympathy and condolences to Milt's family and pray the Good Lord will comfort and give solace to each one as we celebrate the life of our beloved Milt whom we love, respect and admire. As Milt has now embraced his mother, my Aunt Enone and his father, my Uncle Milt, he will also have embraced our common grandfather, Albert Robison Lyman and grandmother, Mary Ellen "Lell" Perkins Lyman. What a grand reunion they are having, which includes all the others of our family who pre-deceased Milt. God Bless his memory, and God Bless those of us who love him and anticipate the day when we will see him in Paradise!
