August 29, 1955 - June 29, 2015

Monte Christo Tukumoeatu Sr., 59, passed away on June 29, 2015 at his home in Magna, Utah after a year long battle with cancer. Monte was born August 29, 1955 in Nuku'Alofa, Tonga to parents Mafi Kakau Langi and Tonga Hihifo Tukumoeatu. He is the oldest of seven children. Monte married 'Ofa Alilia Fifita Sitake in the Oakland, California LDS Temple on July 10, 1982.

In 1962, Monte's family moved to Pago Pago, American Samoa. He learned to speak the Samoan language fluently and loved the culture. When he was 14, Monte moved to Utah to pursue an education and graduated from Granger High School (class of '72). He played safety on the high school football team and his passion was music. Monte was a very capable guitar, bass, and drum set player who loved playing in community cover bands in his younger years.

He served within various positions of the church including Home Teacher, Elders Quorum President, High Priest Group Leader, and High Councilman in the Magna, Utah Stake.

In 1986, Monte began what would become a 29 year career with Northwest Airlines and Delta Airlines. He was an employee until he passed. During his airline career, Monte was stationed in San Francisco, Memphis, Minneapolis,

Las Vegas, and Salt Lake City. He loved the airline family he worked with and was known among co-workers as a man with a big heart and warm smile.

Monte was a hard working family man who always believed in putting the family first. He often worked multiple jobs simultaneously to support them and was sometimes forced to temporarily move away from his family to keep his job. He is survived by his wife, 'Ofa Alilia Tukumoeatu. “ I first met Monte when both of us were transferred to Salt Lake City with Northwest Airlines back in 1997. I was in Newark and he in Vegas. I was one of his ramp chiefs. I had worked with Monte over 8 years but due to some changes, we both found ourselves working graveyards. I do not recall the circumstances but Monte and I got into it one night...I guess I said something that set him off(which was weird because he was so mild mannered) and he literally wanted to knock my head off. I think a couple of the other guys held him back until he collected himself. The thing I remember was the next day. With tears in his eyes, he came to me apologizing for his actions the night before and he gave me this big embrace, literally picking me up off the ground. Monte had a big heart and truly reflected his religious beliefs of trying to be more Christ like. Most of the guys he worked with, including me, were less active Mormon men and women, yet he always stood by his faith. He was a great example to me and is one of the main reasons I returned to activity in the LDS Church.

After Northwest Airlines made drastic cuts in 2006, i moved to Oregon where I married a LDS single mom of 8 and lost contact with Monte. It wasn't until my recent move to Hawaii that one of our fellow workers informed me of Monte's passing. I was so saddened to hear that my good friend Monte passed to the other side.

God bless his family and know that he was well loved by the Salt Lake City gang at Northwest Airlines.

My sympathies and love,

Andrew Hendrickson

“ I met Monte when i transfered to salt lake city 3 years ago on the ramp. He was one of the nicest people i have ever met. He would always take the time to talk to me. He genuinely cared about how i was doing. He was a hard worker and i would always find him stacking bags in the belly of a jet. Monte was a class act and i will always remember his kind, humble nature. I will always remember you my friend. I know heaven will be a better place with you there.
