

Mosese Vai'asini Folauhola

October 31, 1940 - November 29, 2018

Mosese Vaia'sini Folauhola, 78, returned home on the morning of November 29, 2018, in Murray, Utah. Born on August 31, 1940 in Ha'ateiho Vaheloto Tonga Tapu to Sione and Tuitui Folauhola. He later married the love his life Mele Vaiufia Folauhola in Tonga. Mosese was loved by many and will be deeply missed by all those who knew him.

During his time in Tonga he enjoyed life on the ocean as a deep-sea fisherman. He shared many stories of his passion with his children and grandchildren. Mosese loved life and lived it to the fullest. Day in and day out Mosese spent majority of his time on the plantation providing for his family. He would always tell his grandchildren of the many watermelons he picked and how, "the good ones were in Tonga".

After relocating to the USA, Mosese began life in Salt Lake City where he would acquire a long-term supervising career at Semco Windows and Doors until retirement. While living the retired life, he enjoyed spending his time with family and friends. Mosese loved to watch Sports of any kind, he found joy in the competitive nature. He enjoyed watching all teams but especially The San Francisco 49ers and Utah Jazz. Moses's admiration for sports only grew watching his grandkids as they played. He would attend every single practice and game cheering on his favorite little athletes.

Leading up to his death, Mosese lived the remainder of his days surrounded with loved ones. He enjoyed watching his favorite sports teams with his grandsons and enjoying the competitive banter. Mosese was such a strong and loving man that his days were not short lived, he took pride in keeping himself physically in shape. His tough nature was something that he carried out til his last breath. Mosese will always be remembered for his loving, strong, and charismatic personality. We will miss you forever and remember you always.

Mosese is survived by his loving wife, Mele Vaiufia Folauhola. “ Uncle Mosese was my late mother's youngest brother.He was always a hard worker..in grandpa Sione's plantation in Tonga ..the family were so blessed with all the crops we got from his plantation. He was a very clever fisherman..enjoyed beautiful fresh fish and abundant lobsters etc..Thank you dearest Uncle Mosese for all the love and care you gave your eldest sister our late Mum Fe'aomoeata and to us all her children. I'm sitting here in Canberra, thinking of you and tears streaming down..I wish I was there in SLC..love and miss you so much Uncle. Ofa lahi atu Uncle..RIP..from your favourite niece Luisa n Latukefu and family
