

Norma Alishia Black

October 16, 1982 - May 14, 2014

Norma Alishia Black was born on October 16th, 1982. Our Father in Heaven came to take our beloved Norma Alishia "pooh" Black into His kingdom on May 14th, 2014.

Alishia was a dedicated mother and caregiver to all those whose lives she touched. She had a genuine passion for caring for others. She was a hard worker and her generosity to others will be forever missed.

Alishia is survived by her children Alora Calista Rivera, Leland Lee Black, her mother Vicki Menzies - Black, her five brothers and sisters Shane, Zorana, Jason, Ricky and Lacy Black and the many nieces and nephews that loved her. Alishia's love and caring spirit will always be with us, here and after.

I thought about you yesterday, and days
before that too.
I think of you in silence.
I often speak your name.
All I have are memories,
and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part.
God has you in His

“ I still can't believe you are gone. It breaks my heart into a thousand pieces. I wish so, so much that the situation could've been different. I miss your sweet and stubborn spirit. I miss your jokes and laughter, I miss your feisty, grumpy side too. I just miss all of you. I wish you were here, I'm so saddened by your passing. Just seeing your picture on this page is unbelievable, impossible ... painful.

I remember how hard you always worked and what a fantastic job you had always done. You were a great example of a hard, dedicated employee. I remember how feisty and stubborn you could also be. You were the perfect combo of sweet and spicy.

My heart goes out to your children and your wonderful family. God bless you all through out this difficult time and we wish you strength for the days to come.

“ I'm still in shock. I cant believe how unfair life can be. Pooh you were such a beautiful , funny ,kind, compassionate, friendly, giving soul. WHY HER ? she was so full of life. Always willing to cheer up or give advice to friends or even complete strangers if she thought it would help or brighten your day. To know her was truly a blessing. You were my friend . I am definately better for having known you. I will not forget you. Ever. May you find the prince your heart had longed for. Maybe in heaven theres someone good enough to even come close to being worthy.He better bring his" A Game ". and his bandanna and drumstix to play you some november rain. I will visit the arts festival in your honor this year.We never did get the chance to go. I know u will be there in spirit to make me laugh and see things from a new perspective as u always could do so humorously yet straight . So till we meet again alisha norma black. Please know how much you will be missed . Its so hard to lose such a beautiful friend.

“ Alishia would always stop by Pioneer Valley Hospital when I worked there and just talk in the hall with her two awesome kids. She was so generous and kind. She would also come to my apartment to visit me and Liz and just kick back and reminisce about old days. She was and still is a great friend. We love and miss you Alishia Black you touched many lives and may God be with you now. Your kids are beautiful and your family are in my prayers. God bless “ Alishia Black was an amazing person! She had a true passion for loving and caring for others. Seeing that beautiful smile on a bad day could make it your best! She was always joking and laughing, and it was irresistible to not laugh right along with her! An incredible mother, she would do anything for her kids. An amazing daughter, she really loved to love. An outstanding aunt, she was that aunt you called a second mom, that aunt that you told all your secrets to, that aunt you called your best friend, she was my aunt! And i am more than proud to be able to say that i am her niece! Not a day goes by that i don't think about her. I love you aunt pooh, more than my words could explain, more than the meaning of love itself! I cant express how much love i have for you in my heart! I will miss you more than anyone will know! Let that free spirit fly with the angels, show heaven what a beautiful smile really is! It is not goodbye, just a short see you soon! Muahh!! I love you aunt pooh!!

*I looked and looked again i didn't see you.
I shouted and shouted, listened and listened, i didn't hear you.
I waited and waited, you never came.
So i asked in a nettled cry; where are you?
Only then you replied in a soft whisper deep inside; In your heart were i always have been.*

Alishia, may your rest in peace now and be free. May your children grow up to remember what a beautiful, wonderful mother they had. My heart breaks to think of the situation. If only things could be different. For those reading, please please ALWAYS wear your seat belts, and if you have been drinking, even only a little - do not get behind the wheel of a car. It is just not worth the risk.

Thank you Alishia for having such a tremendous impact on so very many people lives. I know you are up there lifting spirits just as you did down here, even in the hardest of times. God bless.

Erika Liassides - June 02, 2014 at 04:22 PM

She was wearing her seat bet and she wasn't the one drinking and driving but its very true so thank you so much for al you have done erika means a lot.
