

Opal Orpha Mellor Scriver

January 16, 1938 - April 22, 2024

Opal Orpha Mellor Scriver lived the last of her Earth adventure on a warm, sunny, spring afternoon, 22 April 2024 at her home in Sandy, Utah. She was 86 at the time of her passing.

Opal was born at the family home in Fayette, Sanpete, County, Utah on 16 January 1938 and spent her childhood and developing years with her parents, Warren Rex and Rachel Peterson Mellor in Fayette as their sixth child, with her nine siblings, Irma, Ashel, Lapriel, Cora, Letha, Hale, Charles, Greta and Wilma. Opal attended Brigham Young University and later married James William Scriver on 20 September 1957 in the Manti, Utah LDS Temple. They lived and raised their family various places throughout the Intermountain West. She was known for her independent, altruistic, self-sacrificing spirit. She worked in various capacities from sewing lingerie, paper routes with her boys, hotel manager, and the LDS church office building genealogy department to help support her family. She is survived by her four boys Michael James, Gary Kay, Keith Allen, Jason William and their families.

All friends and family are invited to attend her graveside service at the Richfield, Sevier County, Utah, City Cemetery, Friday, April 26 at 2:00 pm. We will meet directly after at the LDS chapel 159 N 400 W Richfield, for some celebration of a life wonderfully lived.
