“ I have such a wonderful sweet memory of Uncle Owen singing with mother at my wedding reception and singing together around the piano at home. I was always so proud growing up to have an uncle in the tabernacle choir and later it was fun when Aunt Beverly joined him and we could look for both of them at conference time.

“ Owen was the most kind, perfect picture of a refined gentleman, he always reminded me of Cary Grant. I was always proud he was my uncle. I loved looking for him when he sang in the Tabernacle choir
