

Pakimotalaha Tausinga

November 10, 1942 - April 17, 2025

Pakimotalaha Tausinga was born on November 10, 1942 in Otea and died at age 82 on April 17, 2025 in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Paki was born to goodly parents, Viliami Lausi'i 'O Hihifo Tausinga and Makeleta Fifita Tausinga. He married Elina Kaufononga Taufateau Tausinga and they married in Nukualofa, Tonga on July 1st, 1970. They were later sealed in the Hamilton, New Zealand temple for time and all eternity.

He served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Tonga. Later he served as a branch president in Niue and as a bishop for The Kahoua ward. He worked as a senior carpenter at Liahona High School and was one of the construction workers for The Nukualofa, Tonga temple. In 1993 his family moved to Salt Lake City, Utah where he later began working at Linford Glass Company. He retired from that same company after 15 years.

Paki is survived by his four children, their spouses and fourteen grandchildren.
