

Pamela Bird Kom

May 9, 1947 - December 20, 2015

Our beloved and precious wife, sister, mom, grandma, and friend passed away peacefully early Sunday December 20, 2015. She was a wonderful person, and truly loved by all. She spent her life sewing as a seamstress, and she was amazing at it. There wasn't a single piece of fabric that she couldn't fix, alter, or create something beautiful with. She was such a blessing in our lives, and in everyone's life she came across. We are so happy that she is finally pain free, and is happily spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year. She is survived by her husband Harry, son Cody (Ashlee), grandson Alexander, and sister Raliene. Preceded in death by her parents DeRay and Nedra, and her three siblings: Raymond, Lapreal, and Mary-Lou. What a joyous reunion! We love you so very much. Until we meet again!

Graveside Service will be held on Saturday December 26, 2015 at 2:00pm, at Redwood Memorial Mortuary and Cemetery. 6500 South Redwood Rd. SLC, UT 84123

“ I will always remember Pam at the "deer camp", sitting around the fire, sharing stories of hunts gone by or where the big ones were. She was always happy when we were in the mountains. Her and her sisters always made me feel like I really was part of the big Bird family. Haven't seen her since Mary Lou died, but I have thought of her often. Hope she is enjoying the reunion in heaven. May peace and comfort be with the family.

*God bless you all,
Kathie Bird*
