

Pamela J Stephenson (née Smith)

February 3, 1966 - September 2, 2025

Pamela J. Stephenson (née Smith)^{[1][2]}_{SEP}

Pam, age 59, of Salt Lake City, passed away on September 2, 2025. She was born in Tacoma, Washington, to the late Robert and Marilyn Smith.

She is survived by her children, Nick (Regina) Stephenson and Meghan Stephenson, as well as her siblings Bob (Kathy) Cowling, Karen (Pete) Bartschke, Steve Smith, and her 6 nieces and nephews.

Pam was often described by her family and friends as strong-willed and outspoken—qualities that carried her through a courageous 10-year battle with cancer. She will be remembered for cheering on sports with her son, enjoying shopping trips with her daughter, and her passion for reading. Pam also cherished sharing stories of her childhood and the years she spent raising her family in northern and western Michigan.

A celebration of life will be held in her honor by her children at a later date.

The family would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to all the staff at the Huntsman Cancer Hospital for the support and care they were able to provide for Pam, especially in her final days.

Tribute Wall

“ I remember when we were kids, playing outside with our other cousins, at Grandma and Grandpa Smith’s. We were best friends and thought we were so lucky to have the family that we did! We had no idea what was in the future and we didn’t care... ”

Hope Monroe - September 08, 2025 at 08:17 AM