“ Amoo/uncle Parviz,
Was a man of integrity, honesty, kindness and generosity.
He loved his wife and children and did his best to make sure they live a happy and successful life always and forever.

He was a good provider and worked hard to manufacture quality products and was kind to his employees.

It was shocking that he unexpectedly left us. He was a good role model for many men and women and we miss him.

He had a great smile and I am sure his spirit lives on and advances happily because of his descent actions in this world.

When he was coming back to U.S. from traveling around the world, he would come to visit and always brought a souvenir for whoever he knew to show them that he remembered them.

Now his spirit is resting and advancing peacefully next to his lovely wife Simmin's spirit and are associating with other family members and friends spirits who ascended to a higher place.

“ Dear Mr Meshkin,

I am so sad we have lost you. I never forget your kindness, your great manner and your hospitality when we used to come to your house and see Pania and Payam, sitting round the table and eating the delicious Ghormesabzi you made for us. I was so proud of you as my friends' father running around them doing everything that their mother would do. I would come home and tell my family how you were a father and mother for both Pania and Payam. Thank you for looking after us when we came to visit you all. Thank you for coming to our wedding and your wonderful nature every time we spoke to you. You were truly a great man and I am so sorry we lost you.

Rest in peace kind man. You will be always in our thoughts.
