

Patricia A. Tuiaki

December 28, 1955 - April 27, 2022

Patricia Ann Wolfgramm Tuiaki, 66, of Spanish Fork, Utah left us, surrounded by her family on April 27, 2022 after a valiant battle with cancer.

Patricia was born December 28, 1955 in Auckland, New Zealand to Joshua Makelani Wolfgramm and Mele Anau Payne. She spent most of her childhood in Auckland. In 1971 at the age of 15, her family moved to the States. Patricia had many fond memories of her time dancing for Sounds of Polynesia. She loved to dance which she would later instill that same love into her children & grandchildren. She met her husband, Peiholani Tuiaki and was sealed for all time and eternity in the Mesa Arizona temple July 6, 1989. On December 15, 2001, Peiholani & Patricia sealed their children to them in the Provo Temple shortly after their oldest Uheina served a mission in New York. After her son, Peni Prescott returned from serving in North Carolina, in 2007, Patricia was diagnosed with breast cancer. She began her long battle, even going into remission a few times. Regardless of her diagnoses, she worked hard for many years to provide for her family. Patricia retired from American Airlines in 2013 after 10 years of service. She used her time to travel more which she loved to do. Patricia always made it a priority to attend as many family functions as she was able. She loved her family so much.

Patricia was a “foodie” before that was even a thing. She loved her pastries and loved to bake. She enjoyed cooking and experimenting while she cooked. She became very good at critiquing dishes & making everyone around her better cooks. Most of all, she loved to cook for her family. Momma’s cooking was everyone’s favorite in her house. She was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ, who served in many callings and enjoyed the relationships she’s gained throughout her lifetime. She was an avid reader and loved her Korean dramas.

Patricia was a dedicated mother first and foremost. She treasured her children and embraced every moment with them. She especially loved her role as Nana. She was the best Nana. It is an absolute honor to have her as our mother, friend, confidant and now our angel. Patricia was predeceased by her parents, her brother Sione Tufui Wolfgramm, her sister Amelia Rose Wolfgramm Kaipelea and her grandsons Isaac Prescott & Makelani Pahoran Wolfgramm.

Patricia is survived by her husband, Peiholani Tuiaki; her children, Uheina Wolfgramm, Shane Wolfgramm (Heleine), Peni Leka Prescott (Elizabeth), Vivian Lopini Prescott (Whitney Lusia), Peiholani Tuiaki, II (Kimberly), Finau Tuiaki, Sione Tuiaki, Salote Tuiaki; her 10 grandchildren, Vahanoa he Ofa, David, Koloa, Luti, Vasimata, Ezra, Luisa, Peiholani, Reign, Tewehanga; and her siblings, Samuela "Tiny" Wolfgramm (Clara), Alfred William Wolfgramm, Carl Frederick Wolfgramm, & Finau Angeline Odette Wolfgramm Kefu.

“ I have a wonderful husband & beyond amazing children. My life is full of so much love & joy because of them. I would not have the life I love without you Nana. Thank you for loving my babies as much as I do. Everything good in Shane I attribute to you. Having you as a second Mom has always been my honor. Even when I didn't deserve it, you were always quick to forgive and quick to serve. Love you Mom. Give Baby Mak a hug for me.
