

Patrick Wilbur Green

November 8, 1946 - January 8, 2015

Patrick Wilbur Green passed away at home on January 8, 2015 at 68 years of age. Pat was born in Lewistown, Pennsylvania to Gladys and Wilbur Green. We love him and will miss him but he is now reunited with his parents who precede him in death. He leaves behind a sister Jeanie (Jake) Jacobsen; seven children, Tom (Teri) Green, Travis (Brittany) Green, Dusty (Rachel) Green, George (Stephanie) Green, Shady (Bill) James, Richard Thompson and Stormie Green; 12 grandchildren and Gypsy his beloved pet. Pat served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War as a truck driver. He was an avid Notre Dame fan and loved listening to his grandchildren's sporting events. In the spirit of Pat's love of Notre Dame we will choose to remember our good times with Pat and "make the present good, and the past will take care of itself" a quote by legendary coach Knute Rockne.

Tribute Wall

“ Patrick Wilbur Green

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM

“ I only met Patrick a couple of times and he didn't have much to say. But I'm extremely impressed and proud of Travis and Brittany for taking care of him and for arranging the funeral and memorial. You're both good, compassionate, loving children. I'm sure Pat is proud and appreciative for all that you have done. Jeff.

Jeff Peterson - January 15, 2015 at 05:47 PM

This justin adams rip my dude

justin adams - May 19, 2015 at 12:53 PM