

Patsy Lamb Casper

October 14, 2024 - October 14, 2024

Patsy Lamb Casper, born on September 24, 1948, in Heber City, Utah, to Beverly and Elijah Lamb, passed away on October 14, surrounded by her loving family. Known for her warmth, strength, and boundless devotion, Patsy dedicated her life to the people she loved most.

Growing up as the daughter of a sheep herder, Patsy described her childhood as “magical,” filled with adventures in the mountains. This upbringing instilled in her a love for nature and a spirit of resilience that shaped her life.

In 1968, Patsy met the love of her life, Robert Casper. Together, they built a beautiful life, raising two beloved daughters, Pam and Nicole, and sharing in the joy of four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. These grandchildren and great-grandchildren became her greatest pride and joy, filling her days with happiness.

After Robert’s passing, Patsy moved to Draper, Utah, to be closer to her daughters, son-in-law, and grandchildren. She found comfort in life’s simple pleasures, caring for her family, working on puzzles, and doting on the family’s cherished pets. Her “fur grand pups” brought her a special sense of peace and companionship.

Patsy was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers. Her family will carry forward her memory, cherishing the warmth, laughter, and gentle presence she brought to their lives. Patsy's spirit will live on in the mountains she loved, in the family she adored, and in the legacy of love she leaves behind.

There will be a graveside service at the Tabiona Cemetery on Saturday, November 2, 2024 at 12:00 pm.
