“ Dear Family of Paul Paongo,

I serve as the Staff Coordinator in the Baptistery of the Salt Lake Temple. I was out of town when Paul passed away and when funeral service was held, but I wanted to write to tell you what a valued worker Paul was in the Baptistery.

He was very dependable and always anxious to pitch in and do the work necessary to give the young patrons a good experience. I was impressed that he continued to be a faithful worker even after his health declined and it was necessary for him to use oxygen.

Paul's strong faith was very evident in his great attitude even though his shift was early in the morning.

I greatly admired Paul and hope that you will learn from his example of devoted service.

Best wishes,

Phil Pugsley
