Paula Fa'amoe Alisa-Chang Aiono

January 20, 1968 – February 26, 2025

Paula Fa'amoe Alisa-Chang Aiono, 57, of West Valley City, Utah, passed away peacefully at her home on February 26, 2025, surrounded by her loving family.

Paula was born on January 20, 1968, in Kahuku, Hawaii, to Alisa Chang and Olevia Mulitalo. She grew up with a deep love for her family and faith, attending both Kahuku High School in Hawaii and South High School in Utah. Paula dedicated her life to being a loving wife, mother and grandmother, finding her greatest joy in serving and caring for those she loved.

On February 14, 1989, Paula married the love of her life, Tusi Aiono, at the Whittier LDS Chapel in Salt Lake City. Together, they built a beautiful life filled with love, laughter, and devotion to their family. She was a proud and nurturing mother to Kiyana Olevia Aiono, Tusi Liutai Aiono Jr., Travis Dunn Alisa Aiono, and Setu Euta Aiono. She was also a beloved Nanah to eight cherished grandbabies: Drake, Indiana, Alisa, Sophie, Elling, Hollyn, Remi, and Kendall, whom she absolutely adored and loved to spoil.

Paula's life was centered around service—whether in her church callings, within her family, or simply through small acts of kindness that made a lasting impact on those around her. She will always be remembered for her selflessness, kindness, humility, and unwavering love. She was deeply respected by all who knew her, and her presence brought warmth and comfort to those in need. A devoted member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Paula had a firm testimony of Heavenly Father and the Atonement of Jesus Christ. Her faith was an anchor in her life, and she lived each day as a reflection of her love for the Savior.

Paula is survived by her husband, Tusi; her children and grandbabies; and her siblings, Alisa Jr., Dunn, Anne, and Stone. She was a beacon of light in their lives and will be deeply missed.

Her love, faith, and kindness will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.
