Nuestra amada Paula falleció después de librar una larga y valiente batalla por 6 meses; ella peleó la buena batalla, terminó la carrera y guardó su fe en Dios. Fué una guerrera incansable luchando contra las circunstancias adversas que se presentaron después del accidente automovilístico que la incapacitó para continuar con su vida alegre y activa que ella llevaba. “ What a beautiful soul! I will cherish the days we had together as teacher and student, and will always have her in my heart. She was a generous young lady who often thought of others before herself. She danced a beautiful dance for me and my family at a school assembly, to honor my niece who had died and my nephew, the songwriter. I will remember that dance forever! God bless you Paula. He must have needed you in Heaven for something special, since he called for you at such a young age. I love you!

“ I always said hello to her in high school and made her smile once in a while. I could always tell how much she cared for her circle of friends.
