“ I was friends with Quinn at the OC in fourth grade. He was so funny and I loved spending time with her. He got me into some of the media that's completely shaped me as a person and is still important to me to this day.

This is a photo of us at the very first Comic Con in Utah which i've attended ever since. I hope she's at peace and even though we hadn't spoken in years, his absence is felt. I miss you my friend!
