

Rene Orlando Negron Quijano

July 4, 1953 - August 27, 2023

Rene Orlando Negron Quijano, 70, passed away August 27, 2023 in West Jordan after a valiant battle with cancer. He was born in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico on July 4, 1953. He married his first wife Joyce in Puerto Rico, in December 1977. Together they raised three children Manuel, Joa and Rene. They were married 37 years prior to her passing. After the loss of his beloved first wife, Rene, found love and married Evelia A. Bastidas, February 2017 in South Jordan, Utah. Embracing the chance to create new beginnings.

He proudly served his country as a member of the Army dedicating two years of his life defending the values he held dear and he earned an honorable discharge upon completing his service. He studied accounting where he obtained a Bachelor's Degree. He worked as an auditor for the Puerto Rican Government prior to moving to Utah. His last employment was Nelson Labs. He loved the ocean and beaches; dancing; he was a movie fanatic; going to the gym and cycling. He preferred old school Salsa music. From a very young age he loved to travel and was always looking for an adventure. Rene was a true Gentleman but also was fun loving and a child at heart. He enjoyed playing games and was expert at playing Monopoly, Card Games and Dominoes.

He is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and has many friends and supporters from his local ward.

Rene is survived by his wife Evelia Bastidas,

Children: Manuel (Becky), Joa (Rocio), Rene
