A message from mom:

Rhen you are my sunshine, the day you came into our lives we knew you were special. I still go on and on about how beautiful and sweet you are! Your temperament is perfect. While you were with us you hardly ever cried. You slept so peacefully. You made your daddy proud with your appetite, always wanting more. Your deep blue eyes are piercing. Such precious moments when you would look up at me. I knew you could see my soul. I knew you could feel my love. Every morning I had to call your grandma or your aunt Brooke just to tell them how perfect you are. I just couldn't keep it inside of me and I still can't. Your lips, so plump and perfect for kisses. Your nose, so cute. I can't count all the Eskimo kisses (or as Griffey calls them, ugamugas) that I gave you. Your daddy and I would laugh hysterically when you let Griffin play with your little toes and make up his own words to "this little piggie". Every little part of you was loved but I especially came to love your little belly button and your feet. Your little belly button was a reminder that you lived and grew inside of me. I nourished you to become the strong, sweet angel baby you are. And your feet. I loved to rub them and ponder to myself where these feet are going to take you? I am so blessed to be your mommy. I have enjoyed the last 6 weeks spending every waking moment with you. I know that your sweet sprit will be in our home. I have already begun to feel peace and comfort knowing that when I see you again you will be my same sweet angel baby. I will hold you and never let you go. You have taught me so much in your short sweet life, lessons I will never forget. I know your brothers love and miss you so much. Their faces lit up every time they saw you. You made everyone fall in love with you. I was constantly stopped by strangers so they could tell me how beautiful you are. Thank you for all the love you shared with me. I know that God will be with you until we meet again. I love you sweet little angel.

Your Proud and blessed Mother!
