

Richard D. McKinnon

February 22, 1934 - May 17, 2014

Richard D. McKinnon made the move from mortality on May 17, 2014 from his home in Provo, Utah. He was born January 22, 1934 in Morgan, Utah, the son of Margaret and Benjamin McKinnon. Richard served an LDS mission in the Western States Mission, and served in the United States Navy. Richard married his eternal companion, Shirley Clark, of Lake Point, Utah in April, 1955. He graduated from the University of Utah in Physics. He served the Lord throughout his life. They enjoyed living in Europe and in many cities across the United States. He took pleasure in sailing, painting, back packing, and a tall, cool glass of buttermilk. Richard and Shirley feel blessed with the gifts of five children, twenty five grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held Saturday May 24, 2014 at 11:00 A.M. in the Stadium Ave. Chapel 650 E. Stadium Ave. Provo, Utah. Interment Orem City Cemetery.
