

RJ Davies

July 14, 1934 - December 14, 2014

RJ Davies was born July 14, 1934 in Menan, Idaho to Russell Hodgson Davies and Alta Johnson Davies. He passed away after a brief illness December 14, 2014 surrounded by his family at his home in Holladay, Utah.

He attended school in Idaho Falls, Idaho and graduated from Idaho Falls High School. He interrupted his higher education to serve a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints for 2 ½ years in Central America. After his mission experience, he continued his education at BYU.

He met his sweetheart, Jeanette Griggs, shortly after returning from his mission and they were married on June 11, 1959 in the Idaho Falls Temple following his graduation from Brigham Young University.

They lived a few years in Salt Lake City where he taught mathematics and Spanish at East High School. The family then moved to Napa, California where RJ continued to teach mathematics and Spanish in the public schools.

He was a very active member of the LDS church and served in several callings including High Priest group leadership and Bishop's counselor. One of his greatest joys was to see all of his living children serve missions for the LDS Church.

He is the father of seven children and was preceded in death by a son Chad Preston and by a grandson Erik Leif Simonsen. He is survived by his wife Jeanette, six children, Ro (Susan), Chela (Garth), Ty (Ann), Gwyn (Dennis), Catrin (Lincoln) and Bron (Stacey), 21 grandchildren and 1 great grandson.

A Graveside Service will be held Saturday, December 20, 2014 at 12 Noon at the Holladay Memorial Park Cemetery located at 4900 S. Memory Lane in Holladay, Utah. Friends and family will meet following the service at the LDS chapel located at 2065 E 4675 S, in Holladay.

The family wishes to express sincere love and appreciation to the Holladay 1st Ward family and to the Rocky Mountain Care personnel.
