

Roanne Duncan Rodda

May 2, 1938 - September 1, 2021

Roanne Duncan Rodda, our amazing Mom, Grandma and Gigi passed away of heart failure on September 1, 2021 in Murray, UT.

Mom was born on May 2, 1938 in Jackson, IL to Vora and Evelyn Archer Duncan. She had three brothers, Roy and Dennis who preceded her in death. Mom was very close to her remaining brother, Bill, and his wife Dolores who she lovingly referred to as her “BFF”.

She married Tony Rodda on August 15, 1954 in Yuma, Arizona. Together they raised 7 daughters, who she always said were “the best things that ever happened to her”:

Louanne Bowles, Cindey (Steve) Beck, Kimm Partridge, Toni Rodda, Wendy (Louie) Peyton, Tami (Paul) Guidash and Debbie (Jim) Anderson.

She had 16 grandchildren and 26 great grandchildren.

Her kids and their families were her whole world. She knew everything about each and every one of them and was a huge part of their lives.

To know Mom was to love her. She was one of the most fun-loving people around. If there was an adventure to be had, mom wanted to be right in the middle of it.

As per her wishes, there will be no funeral services. Our family will be having a very informal get together on Saturday, September 18, 2021, from 4:30 –

6:00 pm at Flat Iron-Mesa Park, Upper Pavilion, 1700 East 8600 South, Sandy, Utah where anyone who loved her is welcome to stop by.

Arrangements handled by Serenity Funeral Home, Bluffdale, UT. Please feel free to share memories and condolences at www.serenityfhs.com
