

Roseline MOUNGA HALALIKU HAMALA

October 24, 1948 - October 6, 2024

On October 6, 2024, the world lost a beloved Mom, Grandma, Gigi, Sister, Aunt, Friend - Roseline MOUNGA HALALIKU HAMALA aka "Mama Rose", she was surrounded by all her loved ones.

She was born in Niuatoputapu, Tonga on October 24, 1948, to Sione Hala and Mele Veli Halaliku.

Mama Rose would light up the room when she walks in, and you are greeted by her big loving welcoming infectious smile! She had a strong will, unwavering determination, to provide, love and support for her family. She is a devout member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; she loved reading her scriptures and especially always loved going to the temple. It is her faith, her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren that are her passion.

She was known for her vocals singing in the church choir in her early years. She was the social butterfly of the family and the connection to our family tree. She loved to go to events, dances and family gatherings and truly enjoyed every moment and everyone.

If you know her, you know she was one of the biggest fans of WWE wrestling. She was the biggest cheerleader at the football games with her sons, grandsons and great grandsons. All know that her boys are Mama's boys, and she is forever Queen of their hearts.
