February 4, 2001 - October 8, 2023

Ryker Page Reynolds died on his motorcycle in a tragic hit and run in the early morning on October 8, 2023, in Sandy, Utah. Ryker was 22 years old and had his whole life ahead of him.

Ryker was born on February 4, 2001, in Murray, Utah to his parents Robby Reynolds and Becky Liuzzi. Ryker grew up in Sandy, Utah and attended Jordan High School where he excelled as the lacrosse goalie, graduating in 2019. He was a young man of many accomplishments: strong work ethic, entrepreneur, photographer, a coach of 7th/8th grade lacrosse, artist, and musician.

Ryker was truly one of a kind. He was gentle, patient, kind, witty, funny, artistic, creative, deeply loving, and handsome. He had a passion for his family, music, photography, skateboarding, snowboarding, art, and lacrosse. He had the most genuine heart and light that will never be forgotten and will live on through everyone who was blessed to meet him.

Ryker is survived by his mother, Becky Liuzzi, and father, Robby Reynolds; stepmother, Courtney Brattin-Reynolds, and stepfather, Joe Liuzzi; his grandmother, Sandra 'Honey' Reynolds; the Liuzzi brothers—Joey, Tigo, Dino and Marco; and girlfriend Kenzie Ahna.

“ You will be missed Ryker Page Reynolds. I am so saddened by the sudden loss of your time on earth. While we did not hang out much I will remember you by how proud of you your father was. Everytime you and Robby were together it seemed like the best moments of Robby's life. He would always share the latest updates of your lives amongst his friends. Most recently he was so proud of you becoming a LAX coach helping to push kids to their highest potential. I am sorry for your father and family whom have to endure the pain of such a bright light being turned off too early. I hope to meet you again Ryker. -JF

“ My twins, Joshua, and Gordon met Ryker in kindergarten. He became an extension of our family from that first day. He lived the next block over in as they grew. I can't remember a weekend that he didn't have a sleepover with us. He was part of all of our family celebrations throughout the years boys birthdays Halloween Christmas graduation you name it. Those boys were always the together. The three of us will miss him daily, we will never forget how he loved life and lived it fully everyday. Our prayers are with you all. The Sunder Family
