San Francisco Moliki Mulitalo, aka "Frisco", was called home to our Heavenly Father the morning of January 4th reuniting with his parents, older sister, Ta'alolo Moliki Mulitalo Lupeamanu, and lifelong best friend, Lua Afatasi. He was 53.

Born on March 29, 1967, in San Francisco, California to loving parents, Moliki Mulitalo and Fa'aletupu Mulitalo. Frisco was the fifth of seven children.

He went to school in Daly City, California graduating from Jefferson High School. As a student athlete, he continued his education at BYU-Provo and Ricks College in Rexburg, Idaho.

He lived a life full of faith with a desire to follow Christ serving an honorable two year mission for the church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, laboring in the Fort Lauderdale, Florida area. That desire to serve his fellowman led him to compassionately work as a family teacher and therapeutic consultant for 15 years helping to encourage and be a father figure to countless at risk youth. He truly lived by their group home motto of, "save one child, save a generation."

Frisco was known to light up a room wherever he went with his vibrant spirit. He was well known for his jokes and ability to make others laugh. He loved life and enjoyed many things such as sports, music, and DJing but what he loved most of all were his children and grandson.

Survived by his three children, Rylee (Fesi Va'aivaka), Rory (Hannah Roberts), and Baylee, his grandson Samieula, and many more loving relatives.

Frisco will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him. "W0ah! Donkey!"

“ I loved Frisco as a brother because he was family to everyone that he met. He had a never ending smile and the voice of an angel. We kept in contact up until his passing which is still very hard to deal with. He will be greatly missed always!!! Preach on "Rice Man"

“ I knew Frisco as a young man and athlete at Jefferson High School. It was no surprise that he became the man he was, respected and loved by family and friends. A true example of his Polynesian heritage. Rest In Peace Frisco!
