“ Ma and I bonded over potato salad. I'm the only one who can say that, I think. I wasn't really family but I loved her so much. She was always so kind to me and always made me feel welcome. She and Calvin were married on my first birthday... I didn't know that until today! She was an exceptional, beautiful, authentic woman and I will miss her so much. Ma will always have a special place in my heart. And Lorrie, I will always love you, my beautiful friend.

Sandra is one of the strongest women I've ever known. She has forever left an imprint on my heart. She made going through difficult trials look like a walk in the park. Her positive outlook and wise mind built many up. It is very fitting that her favorite trinkets were lighthouses for she was one to many. Lorrie was her deepest love and never wanted her to leave her side. I will always remember how much she loved and cherished their relationship. May you rest peacefully, Sandra. Your light will continue to shine over your loved ones here on earth. Until we meet again!
