“ I don't how to express in words how I truly felt about scott. At the time when I got to know him in his life he acted like he had everything in life when he almost had nothing. He didn't let his health or financial struggles scare him and always gave his own shirt off of his back. He touched my life in more ways then I can ever repay him for. I'm so proud of the effort you made these last few years to make sure makenzie and scotty had whatever they needed! You were such an amazing person to get to know and I will never forget our many laughs we shared together. R.i.p papa scott tell, mama Susie, I said hi and i love you both!
