“ I love and miss you very much mom with each passing day. I yearn for your words of comfort, firm discipline and heavy encouragements. I could never fully understand the intensity of love that was always emanating from you until now, you were teaching me not only the value of genuine love but also how to love right. I wish and pray I will be lucky enough to become half the mother you were and will always be in my heart. I love you mom.

“ Seini was one of my language instructors when I trained for the Peace Corps on the island of Moloka'i waaaaay back in 1967! How I loved Seini! She was cute, positive, always willing to share gospel stories and principles with me, ever so helpful in many wonderful ways. When I learned today that Seini passed away last year, I cried. How I wish I had known sooner. Please know that she's left a large hole in my heart because of the wonderful memories she gave me all those years ago. 'Ofa atu lahi, Seini...Siulolo Wolfgramm

“ I was shocked to learn of Seini's passing. She was always such a positive person, became a great teacher, mother, role model, and had a wide-reaching influence for good. Love and prayers to Peter and all the relatives. Ofa atu, Noel McGrevy, New Zealand.
