“ I met Sergio in 1963, he was a friend of my husband Manuel Vorher and compadre Roberto and comadre Josephine Sandoval. He and his family were always fun to be around, at that time at that time I was 17 and they were a little older.

*I remember that Sergio was part of our circle, time pasted and all went our own way but after my father died and I saw him and Eddie walk into the church for the viewing I felt that he had not forgotten us and that sure mean a lot to me, for at times like these to see forgotten friends mean a lot. I will never for get the times and friends ship we all had.
Rest In Peace Sergio*
