

Sharon Lee Williams

March 13, 1942 - December 28, 2022

Sharon Gilham Williams was 80 years old when she passed away from cancer on Dec. 28, 2022.

She was raised in Montana and spent a lot of her life in Montana. She also lived in Oregon, New Mexico, Washington, and Utah. She loved the outdoors & she loved camping, hiking. Her grandchildren loved their Grandma and all the fun times and Crazy stories she would tell them. Her favorite Friday and Saturday activity was yard sales., she loved a bargain. She enjoyed sewing & crafting and was very good at it.

She was preceded in death by her husband Blake Williams.

She is survived by her Sister Shirley Sterling, her children Michelle (William) Young, Michael (Shela) Gordon, Rick (Cami) Gordon, Jamie Ruttenbur. She has 13 Grandchildren & 16 Great Grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Sharon Lee Williams

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM

“ I'am so sorry for your loss prayers 🙏 go out your family and friends I luv her pot roast she got me hook on all touch spice that come from Montana she brought me a couple of them when she went to Montana to visit and I love that spice it's one of the best spice ever thank you Sharon for getting me hooked on it I love it is one of my favorite spices of all time I am so sorry for your loss you were a great person. Great friend.

Raul Ortega Jr - February 01, 2023 at 07:20 AM