

Sherri Burt Jensen

September 28, 1922 - September 13, 2016

Sherri Burt Jensen, 93, of Sandy, UT, passed away on September 13, 2016. She was born in Los Angeles, CA on September 28, 1922. She married Max Jensen in 1969 in Los Angeles and then moved to St. Louis, MO. with her son Jeffery, and David, and Max's son Richard. They lived there until 1985 and moved to Sandy, Utah where they lived until their deaths.

Sherri, in her seventies, began her pursuit of the Arts on a very personal level. She painted, wrote poems, took classes in Shakespeare and became the artist she truly was. She also pursued her personal growth attending numerous workshops that expanded her spiritual horizon.

Sherri was an active member of her ward and a good friend to many. Sherri Jensen was a twin with her sister Betty Murdoch. She was beloved by her sister's daughters, Sherri, Jan, and Betty Ann. The twins have always been close and enjoyed each other's fun and playful company.

David Morgan, Sherri's youngest son, has been faithful and dedicated to his mother throughout their lives. David is married to Annadee, who is a talented woman in her own right. Stephanie Stone, Sherri's only daughter has been consistently close to her mother, and together they navigated the difficulties of life.

Michael Morgan and Jeffery Morgan, her other two children cannot be here as Mike has passed away, and Jeffrey is unable to attend. Michael Morgan's daughter, Elizabeth Morgan lives in southern California, and was dearly loved by Sherri. His wife Margaret, now deceased, was a lovely woman.

Sherri has ten grandchildren: David and Annadee: Jensen, Ondine, Margaret, Seth, Camilla, Genevieve, and Gabriele.

Stephanie Stone: Kate Oliver, and Dmitry Stone.

Mike Morgan and Margaret: Elizabeth Morgan

We all love Sherri and wish her well on her journey to her next life.

God bless you Sherri we all will miss you deeply!
