July 15, 1924 - May 19, 2013

Shirley Wright Theobald-Peterson passed away May 19, 2013 at home surrounded by family. She was born on July 15, 1924 in Hinckley, Utah to Walter Edmond and Zola Walker Wright. She was educated in Delta and later attended B.A.C in Cedar City, Utah on scholarship.

They lived in many areas: Provo, Salt Lake City; San Fernando Valley, California; Avon and Geneseo, New York; Payson, Utah and then upon Milton's retirement settled at the Edgewood Condominiums in Provo where they enjoyed the sports and activities at Brigham Young University. She was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and held many church positions in each organization: teacher, secretary, dance instructor, Relief Society President and most recently as an ordinance worker in the Provo Temple.

After selling real estate, she worked as a volunteer at the Payson Hospital for several years, and was named the "State Volunteer of the Year" in March 1986, as she was instrumental in introducing "The Life Line" programs in the State of Utah. She loved traveling, dancing, gardening, sewing, crocheting and making afghans for children and granddaughters.

After Milton's death in 1990, she married another home-town classmate, Arland J. Peterson, in Provo, Utah in 1996. They enjoyed traveling with the GoodSam Club.

Shirley is survived by her husband Arland Peterson; son Gary M. Theobald (Debbie) of Payson, Arizona; sons Scott W. Theobald (Jan) and David Theobald of Logan, Utah; daughters Gwen Loveless (Ray) of Payson, Utah; Sharon Henricksen of Provo, Utah; brother Derral Wright (Shirley) of Beaver, Utah; sisters-in-law Helen Wright and JoAnn Wright of Delta, Utah. A viewing will held two hours prior to the service. Shirley will be interred at East Lawn Cemetery in Provo, Utah.
