“ *I remembered when we were still at Ha'ateiho Side School, my sister Lakalaka Ka'ili was the principal, and Sione, Taniela Pikula and I left school to go and tulihopo at Vai-ko-Puna, we did not come back until school ended, Lakalaka was waiting for us, Sione and I got the short end of her big ruler(stick), we ran around the principal's office crying, the only words of comfort came from outside, it was Patriach 'Asaeli Ika saying, mo kai hake hena moe hola he ako, to this day I still couldn't figure out why and how Taniela Pikula escaped from this child abusing incident...hooooi....never in my dreams that I will be the Funeral Director that will be preparing him for his final journey from this world, goodbye my friend, I will never forget your smiling face....Peni T.
