

Slavko Sentic

August 30, 1964 - October 18, 2019

Slavko Sentic passed away at home on October 18th, 2019. At the age of 55. Slavko is predeceased by father Zvonimir Sentic and mother Paula Sentic. Slavko is survived by his wife Zumreta of 32 years. They were married in Tuzla on March 9th, 1989. Slavko is lovingly remembered by his 5 children Davor, Dajana, Danijel, Denis and David. His two grandchildren Maja and Miana and his sister Gordana Jeftic.

Slavko was born in Sarajevo, Bosna I Hercegovina August 30th, 1964. He graduated from Univerzitet Svetozar Markovic, his trade school where he went on to be a professional painter. He loved painting and had a great passion for it, along with hunting, fishing, shooting, throwing knives, crafting his own knives and carving bones into necklaces... You name it and he could do it. He was a truly great man. His greatest passion of all was his family. He loved spending time with them, having barbeques and get together with his kids, while they talked and listened to music and enjoyed each other's company. He loved anything that had to do with his children and his wife and dedicated his life to providing for his family and always worked hard for everything they had. Slavko loved playing his guitar for his friends and family and was very good at it. He loved teaching his boys how to play. Slavko was a very friendly soul and loved having friends and family around him, he was always surrounded by people that cared about him and would come by to see his wonderful personality. He was a very fun, free and beautiful person that always knew how to put a smile on anyone's face.

He is loved and remembered by many and is going to be truly missed.

Tribute Wall

“ Slavko Sentic

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM

“ 11 files added to the album Slavko Sentic

Dajana - October 24, 2019 at 02:34 PM