

Solieti Fisilau

September 18, 1954 - March 5, 2024

Soileti Fisilau (70), our beloved husband, father and grandfather passed away peacefully on March 5, 2024 surrounded by his family.

Soileti grew up in Koulo, Tonga, with his six sisters and two brothers. Later he came to Salt Lake City, Utah, and met his beautiful wife, Ana Tupou Lata'i Pangai Palu.

They established a life for themselves and their five children. Viliami Fisilau, Jeremy Brown (Cassandra), Akanesi Fisi'hone 'O Ha'angana Fisilau Fainu (Aisea), Tonga Paongo Fisilau (Lokasi) and Taani Fisilau (Tessa) and his nineteen grandchildren.

Soileti is preceded in death by his parents Viliami Fisilau and Fane Fifita Fisilau, and his sister Meleofa Fisilau.

Soileti was a man of faith and devoted to his church. He played the euphonium and served as the Band Manager, playing for services and celebrations across the state. He was a family man and loved watching his kids and grandkids excel in sports.

He enjoyed spending weekends in Wendover with his brother Tevita Tamale and always made sure his yard was taken care of.

Soileti worked at OC Tanner, alongside his wife Ana for 20 years. In his younger years, he was a talented boxer and enjoyed telling stories of those times. He was always proud to say that he had never left a fight with a mark to the face.

Soileti, your stories and unique ways of teaching will be greatly missed. Ofa Lahi Atu!
