

Susan Guerrero Hyatt

September 13, 1941 - May 11, 2017

Susan Guerrero Hyatt, 75, found comfort and peace on May 11, 2017 in St. George, Utah.

Susan was born September 13, 1941 to John and Teddie Guerrero in St. George, Utah.

The family moved to Bountiful, Utah in 1950 where Sue married Larry Hyatt in 1959. They later divorced. She lived in Centerville, Utah until 2010 when she moved back to St. George, Utah. Creativity was her middle name. She loved anything having to do with fabric, yarn or embroidery floss. She leaves behind many beautiful afghans and quilts which were given to family members or charity. She loved being outside and always had gorgeous flowers. Her vegetable garden was gigantic and well tended. Cats were her passion and there never was a hungry one in her neighborhood.

She is survived by her son, Kelvin Hyatt and daughter, Kimberly Aste.

Grandsons, Dan And Nick Aste. Great Grandson, Myles Aste. Sister, Celeste (Ivan) Hogan.

Graveside services will be at 11:00, Wednesday, May 17, 2017 at Lakeview Memorial Cemetery 1640 East Lakeview Drive Bountiful, Utah

In lieu of flowers, a donation to Sue's favorite charity, A.S.C.P.A. would be appreciated.

Online condolences may be made at www.serenityfhs.com.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

MAY 17. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (MT)

Lakeview Cemetery
1640 East Lakeview Drive
Bountiful, AK

Tribute Wall

“ Susan Guerrero Hyatt

---

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM

“ I was so sorry to hear of Sue's death. I moved from Utah 25 years ago but remember her with very fond memories. Her family home in Bountiful was a couple of houses down from ours. Even though she was a few years ahead of me in school, I still remember Sue and her sister Celeste. They loved horses and so did I. Goodbye my friend and may in rest in peace. Donna

---

Donna Belt - December 15, 2017 at 02:27 PM