

Thomas Leroy Calloway Jr.

February 25, 1949 - June 9, 2014

Thomas Leroy Calloway Jr.

Thomas Leroy Calloway Jr., 65, passed away June 9th 2014 in his home, surrounded by his family, after a strong battle with cancer. He was born in Helena, Arkansas to Mary Patricia Brown Calloway and Thomas Calloway Sr. He married Marcell Ann Reber in Sandy, Utah on April 24th 1984, later sealed in the Draper LDS Temple.

Tom was born and raised in the small town of Holly Grove Arkansas. Graduated from Arkansas State University. In 1979 he moved to Salt Lake City and opened several Western Sizzlin Steak Houses, where he met his wife. His hobbies included cooking, barbecuing, golfing, eating good food, watching Jazz games, and anything his children were involved in became his pastime as well. He loved spending time with his friends and family and pampering his pets. He enjoyed driving his motor home and going on family road trips. He was a best friend to his children and a completely devoted husband to his wife. Tom was an example of complete selflessness and always giving to others. Tom made everyone he met feel like they were old friends. During the harrowing stages of Multiple Myeloma cancer Tom was never caught complaining or letting the pain show, but instead met every day with optimism, determination, and a smile.

“ *Marcell,
We were shocked and saddened to hear of Tom's passing. We always held him in such high regard, and we have missed your family being in our neighborhood. We are on a full time mission, so assignments kept us from attending the viewing and funeral, but you have been in our prayers.
May the Lord's blessings continue to be with you and your family.
Love,
Glenn and Carol Baugh*

I am from Holly Grove and went to school with Tommy. He was always the sweetest person and well liked by all his friends. He also attended Arkansas State University as I did. He and my husband were fraternity brothers. All the members thought well of Tommy. I send my condolences to all his family and pray that you can cope with his absence and remember all your wonderful memories of him.
