

Thomas James Hood

January 20, 1980 - January 10, 2016

Thomas James Hood of Thousand Oaks, CA, 35, passed from mortality on Sunday, January 10th at 8:00 in the morning. Tom had been battling lung cancer for more than a year.

Tom was a smart, funny, friendly, outgoing, talkative, adventurer. He was a lover of music, games, camping, hiking, reading, shooting, volunteering in haunted houses, but most of all spending time with his wife and daughters. Tom was a talented software developer. An eager learner, taught himself to program and advanced into leading teams and influencing those he worked for and with.

Tom is survived by his wife Mysti, and four daughters: Kaiya, Morgan, Viola, and Evalyn. His parents Kris and Neil, his brother Dan and his wife Candace as well many nephews, nieces and cousins.

Tom will be remembered with a viewing Saturday January 16th at Serenity Funeral Home in Draper (12278 Lone Peak Parkway #103) from 9:30-11:30, a graveside service in American Fork City Cemetery (26 West 600 North) from 12:15 to 12:45. Followed by a party to remember and celebrate Tom's life at 680 North 350 West in American Fork from 3:00-6:00 on Saturday, Jan 16.

“ I'm sorry that I'm a disgrace and I jump from relationship to relationship. I'm sorry that I could not be the daughter you wanted me to be. I go from person to person hurting people. I'm sorry, daddy I have destroyed your legacy.

“ Hi Daddy. I've been having a hard time. Yesterday was the eight year mark. That's half my life now. Daddy I love you so so so much. I am so sorry for everything. I am sorry that I've been fighting with my siblings, I am sorry that I have been getting bad grades, I am sorry for hurting myself and others, I am sorry for being such an idiot and making fun of you. I remember the day I saw you last. Daddy I could tell you were in so much pain. I was being selfish when I asked you to stay. I was being selfish when I made fun of you while you were slipping away. Daddy there are no words to express how completely and utterly disgusted I am with myself and my behavior. I am sorry.
