

Thomas "Tom" William Lalor

November 19, 1949 - May 19, 2023

Thomas "Tom" William Lalor, a loving father, devoted husband and adventurous spirit passed away on May 19, 2023. Tom lived a life full of passion, exploration and had a deep appreciation for the great outdoors.

Tom is survived by his three beloved sons: Chad (Eva), Brett, and Scott (Alison), eight grandchildren (Jaden, Markus, Bo, Tyson, Max, Cameron, Maddie and Theodore) and his loving and caring wife, Anna Lalor. He will also be remembered by his siblings, Dan, Bill, Anne and John Lalor, who shared in many cherished memories together.

Born on November 19, 1949 in Walla Walla, Washington, Tom was the second child of Jack and Lois Lalor. Tom grew up in Bountiful, Utah, and attended Judge High School. At the young age of 19, Tom enlisted in the US Army, proudly serving during the Vietnam War. With great honor and unwavering commitment, he dedicated himself to his country.

Tom was a true lover of nature, finding solace and joy in the vastness of the outdoors. Fishing, hunting and camping were among his greatest passions, and he often found himself immersed in the tranquility of nature's embrace. His love for the natural world led him to explore various destinations, both near and far including Nepal, Philippines, Hawaii and the Bahamas to name a few. Tom took his family on many boating adventures to Flaming Gorge, where they would chase trout during the day and listen to Simon and Garfunkel by night. Tom took his boys on countless fishing trips. Most notably he took each son to Alaska to chase King Salmon, creating treasured memories.

An avid traveler, Tom earned the status as a "million-miler" for his numerous journeys around the globe. One of his most notable expeditions was his unforgettable trip to Mount Everest, where he reveled in the grandeur of the world's highest peak. Tom had an insatiable curiosity and a thirst for new experiences, and he embraced every opportunity to broaden his horizons and embrace the local people.

Beyond his remarkable achievements and adventures, Tom will be remembered for his warm heart and determination to tackle big challenges. His paternal love and guidance will forever be cherished by his sons, who will carry on his legacy of resilience, strength and love. Tom also had great love for his many dogs through his life, he found deep companionship with his dogs Rocky and Kumbu.

Tom leaves behind a legacy of exploration, courage and an unwavering zest for life. He will be dearly missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him. His memory will forever inspire those who continue to seek new horizons and appreciate the beauty of the world around us.

May his soul rest in eternal peace.

Rest in peace my beloved friend. We will always remember how nice you were to us. Your kind, friendly, and admirable personality. When we first met you, we brought out your genuine personality to us. I have always told you that you were my friend, but more than that, I have seen you as a father. You will always live on in our family's hearts. - Pablo
