

Travis Roy Torman

April 13, 1990 - April 20, 2013

Travis Roy Torman – Our kind-hearted, sweet, loving boy left us on April 20, 2013. Travis was a wonderful person who loved his family and friends unconditionally.

Travis was born in Ogden, Utah, on April 13, 1990 to Luanne Birch Orvis and Jed Torman. He attended East High School and worked at Shop-N-Go in Salt Lake City. He enjoyed listening to music, playing poker with his friends, mountain biking, hiking, swimming, camping, skateboarding and river rafting.

His quick wit and charming personality brought joy to everyone around him. Travis was compassionate and caring for others. He did his best through life's challenges. He was respectful of others and especially helpful and dependable to his family in times of need. We will miss his smile that always brightened the room.

Travis leaves behind many family and friends including his parents, brothers: Jeremy Torman of Bellingham, Washington, Steven Orvis of Midvale; sisters Amie (Eric) Torman Dalton of Ogden, Crystal Bandeira of Ogden, Lacie Birch of Clinton, Amber Birch of Ogden, grandmother Merla (Torman) Swenson and special surrogate brothers, Tony Harris, Quinton James and Jot Parmar. He was preceded in death by his grandfathers, Joseph E. Torman, Roy A. Swenson and Rob Roy Birch and grandmother Barbara Jean Flitton Birch.

A special thanks to all who contributed to Travis' upbringing, helping him become the wonderful person he was. Especially, his aunts Joleen Torman Freer, Lynette Torman Ruppel, Raelyne Barnes, the entire Parmar family and Grandmother Merla Swenson.

Friends and family may gather at a viewing held Wednesday, April 24, from 6:30-8:30 pm at the LDS church located on 130 South and University Street in Salt Lake City. “ I cannot believe this! Rest in Peace Travis. Its been a while since I seen you last, but your smile comes to mind when your name is brought up. I didn't know about this until late last week; otherwise, I would have came to say goodbye. May God be with your family while they grieve your loss. May you watch over your loved ones and be the first to welcome them when it comes to their time to be with you. R.I.P. Travis!!!!!!
