

Traycie Dalton Gee

February 28, 1960 - April 7, 2015

Traycie Dalton Gee, age 55, passed away peacefully of kidney cancer Tuesday morning, April 7, 2015, surrounded by family.

Born February 28, 1960, to Delos Robert and Jeanenne Hyatt Dalton, she grew up in Summit Utah, and graduated from Parowan High School as Valedictorian in the spring of 1978. She attended SUSC before serving as a missionary in Pennsylvania and then moved to Huntington Beach, CA. There she met and waited for Jim Gee as he also served a mission in Pennsylvania. They were married for time and all eternity May 15, 1987 in the St. George, Utah Temple.

Traycie's life was one defined by tireless service to her family, friends, and colleagues. When Traycie received her terminal diagnosis, her first concern was Jim's well-being. She was a faithful member of the LDS Church her entire life and served in numerous church callings. She also enjoyed 28 years at the law firm of Kirton McConkie, where she most recently worked as the Human Resources Coordinator. Those who knew Traycie best knew that she was happiest when she was helping others.

In lieu of flowers, she requests donations be made to The Road Home at <http://www.theroadhome.org/give/donate/>.

Traycie is survived by her husband, Jim; father, Delos Robert Dalton; sisters Marlene Adams and Holly Wall; and brothers Paul and Miguel Dalton.

Viewing will be held Friday, April 10, 2015 from 9:00 – 9:50 a.m. followed by funeral services at 10:00 a.m. in the LDS Chapel located at 1078 South

McClelland Street, Salt Lake City, Utah, 84105. Interment and graveside service to be held later that day in her hometown of Summit, Utah.

Tribute Wall

“ Traycie Dalton Gee

---

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM