

Tu'ungafasi Solomone-Hala'eua

December 29, 1974 - June 28, 2025

Fasi was born on December 29, 1974, in Falevai, Vava'u, Tonga, to Viliami Solomone Piutau Tupou Hala'eua and Hola Ki Vaiola Ve'a Siavao. As a young boy, he and his family moved from Tonga to Hawai'i where he grew up. On July 28, 2001, he married the love of his life, Mele 'Unaloto Ki Matoto Nau, and together they built a beautiful family grounded in Jesus.

He is survived by his six beloved daughters: Moala Laukau, Liku 'O Vava'u Lavinia Niulate Nau, Olivia-Vaimoana 'Unaloto, Mele-Heilala Fu'itahi, Vaiola - Rose, and Gwendelyn Tu'ungafasi Solomone - Hala'eua.

Fasi was a true provider and a hard worker, wearing many hats over the years. He dedicated over 25 years as a dispatcher for FedEx, worked in construction, served in hospitals, coached football, served as a notary, and even kept the peace as a bouncer — roles that showcased both his strength and his dependability.

Above all, Fasi lived with a joyful spirit. He had an infectious laugh and an incredible sense of humor that could lift any room. He loved his football, music, and was always ready to sing along (even if he didn't know the words). He found his greatest happiness cheering on his daughters in their sports and performances.

A devoted servant of God, Fasi served as a deacon at The Point Church, where he delighted in learning more about the word and sharing God's love and truth with others. His life was a testimony of unwavering faith, humble service, and genuine kindness.

Fasi was loved deeply by all who knew him.

He leaves behind countless memories of laughter, lessons of resilience, and a powerful legacy of love and faith that will live on through his family and all who were blessed to call him friend.
