October 11, 1943 - September 6, 2022

Uitualagi To'oa Manupopo Sosefina Hardy was born on October 11, 1943, in Sapapali'i Savai'i, Samoa, to the parents of Fouvale Su'a and Galumalemana Faitoto'a Meavao. She ascended her journey to Heaven on September 6, 2022, surrounded by loved ones at her home in West Jordan, Utah. She is preceded in death by her husband, Burke Darren Hardy, and sons, Eti Te'o Penaia and Paulo Tautaioleua Jaeger.

She is survived by her eldest son, Papali'i Eddie James Jaeger and spouse Elisapeta Jacqueline (Satele), daughter Elsie Paloma (Jaeger) and spouse Misikalisi Mauigoa. She is also survived by 10 siblings, 17 grandchildren, and 27 great grandchildren.

Sose grew up in the islands of Samoa with a tough, spirited soul. Proud of her Malietoa lineage, she ensured her family held steadfast to the fa'asamoa no matter where they moved. Despite her tough exterior, she was the glue that held the family together, the life of the party, and she had a sharp sense of humor. Through the years, she enjoyed watching and playing tennis, bingo nights, and spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She endured much in her youth, but she was resilient, strong, loving, and fiercely protective over her family and children.

A celebration of Sose's life will be held on Saturday, September 24, 2022, at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints - 1800 West 7600 South, West Jordan, UT 84084. A family viewing will be held from 9am to 10am, family service from 10am to 12pm, and a public service at 1pm. Burial service to follow. Sose's final resting place will be at the West Jordan Cemetery, 7925 S 1300 W, West Jordan, UT 84088.
