

Vickie L. Smith

May 30, 1960 - June 5, 2019

Our beloved Vickie L. Smith, 59, passed away on June 5th 2019 at home with her loving husband by her side.

Vickie was born on May 30th 1960 in Salt Lake City to Lamar K. and Patricia Ann Ainsworth. She married Ralph Symes in 1980 and gave birth to a beautiful baby Girl, Patricia Nichole Symes. In 1983, she was re-married to Mike Spafford and gave birth to Adam Spafford. In 1994, she was married one final time to the love of her life, Greg Smith.

Greg and Vickie built a family home together. They put their blood, sweat, and tears into that home where they continued to raise their children. Nichole and Adam were always Vickie's main priority. She was such a good mother. She never missed a single game or dance recital for her children. She thoroughly enjoyed camping, fishing, movies, cooking, dancing, and being the life of the party. Vickie was always a welcoming soul. She would offer the shirt off her back, a place to stay, and provided love and comfort to anyone in need.

Vickie is survived by her husband, Gregory T. Smith; children, Nichole Caldwell (Brent Caldwell), Adam Spafford (Carly Spafford); grandchildren, Abigail Caldwell, Carter Caldwell, Max Caldwell, Dallas Spafford, and Brighton Spafford; Siblings, Rick Ainsworth, Velenie Ainsworth, and Ed Ainsworth.

Vickie is preceded in death by her parents, Patricia Ann Ainsworth, Lamar K. Ainsworth, and her youngest brother, Michael Lloyd Smith.

“ I will never forget how much fun cheering on the boys at their basketball ball game we would cheer so loud and laugh so hard. It was always a great time! I'm so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
