October 4, 1950 - December 9, 2025

Victoria (Vickey) Flandro Chadwick passed away on December 9, 2025 at the age of 75 at her home in West Jordan, Utah after a long battle with cancer. Vickey was born October 4, 1950 to Royce and Melba Flandro in Provo, Utah. Vickey has been married to Kent Culmer Chadwick since March 1, 1972 where they were sealed in the Provo Temple. Vickey's legacy will always be found in the lives of countless elementary children whom she taught for close to 40 years. She was a remarkable teacher who was organized and creative in her approach to teaching. With Vickey's ability to help children with unusual and difficult challenges she changed the course of many lives.

The incredible ability she had to lift and love was felt by all who knew her. Whether she was serving in her church callings in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints or reaching out to love a friend or family member she made lives better, often when her own challenges were overwhelming.

The greatest love of Vickey's life was her family. Her many home related skills shaped an environment here peace, beauty and love were integral to daily life for her loved ones. Vickey is survived by her husband, Kent Chadwick and her son Bret, daughter-in-law Kristin and son Ryan; as well as her beloved grandchildren Gage and Kyler. She is also survived by her siblings: Valerie Rovelsky, Jolene Wells, Kent Flandro, Barbara Yearsley, Renae Folkman and Gaylynne Von der Nuell.
