This is the song of my heart, that He lives!
I KNOW that my Redeemer lives...

May we rejoice in that sure knowledge this Easter day and always. It is because he lives that I will see my father again if I but keep my covenants, obey the commandments, share my testimony, serve others along the way and endure to the end.

Funeral details are below. We are attending church meetings today and will stay beside our sweet mother daily surrounded by our children and closest family preparing to lay dad to rest.

We are strengthened by the prayers of our family members around the world especially Tonga. We are humbled that dad's sisters, brothers, nieces, nephews and our siblings are here from foreign countries to see dad and mourn with mom. We anxiously await the arrival of our brother Stanley from Australia and pray for safe travel of remaining family members from far.

May we honor Dad's wishes so that we can have the peace that comes from simple obedience.

We love you all.
