“Our Family Warrior”

“And he shall plant in the hearts of the children the promises made to the fathers, and the hearts of the children shall turn to their fathers” (D&C 2:2). A Son, nephew, warrior, and a fighter. Viliami Bill Toupili Heimuli has been a soldier since the day he was born, until our Heavenly Father has called him back to return back to Heaven. His smile brightened our day, but the pain he was holding was too much for him to bare.

Kalauti Heimuli and Lise Kolomatangi, parents of Viliami have strived for the better for their son. He is survived by his only sibling, Maggie Malia Heimuli, in which they were only a year apart. Viliami grew up with his many aunts and uncles that were always willing to help with anything from his doctor appointments to babysitting. Viliami not only had the help of his parents, but the help, love, and care of his loving grandparents, Viliami and Latai Heimuli along with Maggie Sekona.

The time has come for our “Little Peanut” to no longer suffer, and be our guarding angel. You have fought a long, hard life. We treasured the days that you lived as a special spot in our hearts. Your smile will forever be missed as we fed, changed, and carried you. We know now you will be watching over us. You are now the angel we look upon, the blessing to our family and the sunshine that will always brighten our days. We love you Viliami, never to be forgotten. You will always hold a special spot in our hearts. Our little peanut. Fly into heaven and watch over our family. For you will always be missed.

“ It was definitely Viliami's time to return back home. He was a miracle baby. Doctors said only a year ago he had a very short time left here on earth. Instead, Viliami had the opportunity to go home with his loving family and have wonderful experiences with his aunties, uncles, grandparents and parents. Viliami came to earth to show us that miracles do happen and now he has returned home to help his father in heaven with more missionary work. We will always love you and miss you very much.
